Red Wines

Rhône Valley

- 12 Cotes du Rhône Premier Terroir 2009 29.20
Château Beauchêne
Opaque, tight, purple rim. Nose opens with rich, ripe plum and dark berries. Concentrated brambly fruit in the mouth . Hints of clove and fennel. Lively flow across the palate with supple tannins. Some typically Grenache strawberry flavours evolve. Lively, full fruited finish
- 40 Vacqueyras 2009 31.00
Domaine de l'Espigouette, Bernard Latour
80% Grenache, 15% Syrah and 5% Mourvèdre make up this powerful wine. The nose is complex, with peat, dried mint and Provençal herbs evidenced. The palate has firm, quite chewy tannins, superb concentration and distinctive hints of lavender and licorice allied to the black fruits in the mid-palate.
- 42 Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2006 49.00
Domaine Duclaux
A vivid nose of sweet cherries, plums, raisins and currants, full bodied and seriously complex, full in the mouth with a generous finish.

Languedoc

- 20 Bergerie De L'Hortus 2009/10 28.70
Vin de Pays du val Montferrand
Coteaux du Languedoc
Aged in New World Barrels, this is very pleasantly smoked, offering a wide range of flavours with lovely tannins leading to an impressive finish.
- 56 Cahors "La Fage" 2005 35.00
Cahors A/C
A juicy Malbec from Cahors Deep dark red color. The nose is nicely complex and evokes scents of plum, berries, leather, earth, etc... On the palate the flavors are equally complex with firm tannins and good acidity. Finishes with some vanilla, oak, drying tannins and fruit.
